

Experience in the Eighteenmile Creek Watershed

- Watershed experience since late 1970's
- Conducted over 10 studies in watershed over the past 8 years
- Excellent working relationship with NYSDEC and EPA Region 2 on Regional and AOC projects
- Eighteenmile Creek projects have won both state and federal awards.
- Eighteenmile Creek projects were recognized with the award of the New York State Governor's Waterfront Re-Discovery Award and the 2004 Team Excellence Award from the Natural Resources Conservation Service"
- Worked with Eighteenmile Creek RAP Coordinator on a variety of projects and investigations including previous PCB Sediment Investigation (2006-2007)
- Conducted over 20 regional environmental Remedial Investigations and Feasibility Studies in the past 10 years
- Managed and facilitated many aspects of the Hudson River PCB Superfund Site project since 2002

Kris Erickson
Chief Scientist – Environmental Restoration
ecology and environment, inc.
716-684-8060
kerickson@ene.com