

Testing the waters

Submitted

Tue, Oct 5th 2021 09:00 am

Paul Dewey's conservation students, at the Niagara Career and Technical Education Center had a grand day at Grant Wilderness Park in Lockport. They conducted water quality analysis and riparian zone assessment.

"It was a great experience for the students to work in collaboration with Niagara County Soil and Water District," Dewey said. "Our resulting evaluations are added to a national database of water quality."

(Photo submitted by Lisa Bielmeier, public relations director for Orleans/Niagara BOCES)

Categories

School Sentinel Tribune Tribune HP Feature Picture